

“The Benefits of Mutual Teaching Placements between Austria and the UK”

Topic/Object of Research/Project/Cooperation

Linguistics/Cultural Studies/Didactics and Methodology

Project Description

This project involves mutual international teaching placements, which PHDL have been organising and running with our partners and affiliated schools in the UK (York/Edinburgh) and Austria (Linz/Bad Goisern) since 2007. Basically, it is an immersion programme for primary and secondary trainees alike and was designed to benefit their professional development, not only in terms of their teaching capacity, but also as regards their second language proficiency and cross-cultural awareness.

Duration

Recurring since 2016; re-approved in May 2020

Participating Partners (teachers and students)

Schools in York, Edinburgh, Linz, Bad Goisern, University of Edinburgh

Project Lead

Markus Wiesinger, Michael Lynch

Participating Persons PHDL (Individuals, Institutes)

Marlene Bauer, Edith Kreutner, Thomas Schöftner

Coordinating Organisation

PHDL Linz - A LINZ04

Contact Address

markus.wiesinger@ph-linz.at