

ASSET (Assessment Tools for Higher Education Institutions)

Topic/Object of Research/Project/Cooperation

Which formative evaluation methods are suitable for problem-based learning arrangements in tertiary education?

Project Description

In 2017, formative evaluation tools were developed and used in education. ASSET (Assessment Tools for Higher Education Institutions) carry out research into their efficacy.

Duration

2017-2020

Participating Partners (teachers and students)

Israel: Kinneret Academic College, Hadassah Academic College, Gordon Academic College; Georgia: The College of Sakhnin for Teacher Education, Sokhumi State University, Ilia State University, Ivane Javakishvili Tbilisi State University, Samtskhe Javaskheti State University, National Center for Teacher Professional Development; Germany: Otto-Friedrich Universität Bamberg; Austria: PHDL; Estonia: School of Digital Technologies, Tallinn University; Ireland: University College of Cork

Project Lead

Dorit Alt (Kinneret Academic College)

Participating Persons PHDL (Individuals, Institutes)

Emmerich Boxhofer, Alfred Weinberger

Coordinating Organisation

Kinneret Academic College

Contact Address

emmerich.boxhofer@ph-linz.at